

Bausch Health Enters Into Arrangement Agreement with Bausch + Lomb Corporation in Connection with Previously Announced Proposed Separation

April 28, 2022

LAVAL, QC and VAUGHAN, ON, April 28, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Bausch Health Companies Inc. (NYSE/TSX: BHC) ("Bausch Health" or the "Company") announced today that, in connection with its previously announced intention to separate its eye health business, it has entered into an arrangement agreement with, among others, its wholly owned subsidiary Bausch + Lomb Corporation ("Bausch + Lomb").

The arrangement agreement sets out the terms and conditions of the proposed transactions by which Bausch Health currently expects to transfer all or a portion of the remaining direct or indirect equity interest in Bausch + Lomb following completion of the initial public offering of Bausch + Lomb (the "Bausch + Lomb IPO") and expiration or waiver of the IPO lockup to Bausch Health shareholders. This transfer is expected to occur pursuant to an arrangement under applicable corporate law that will be implemented pursuant a plan of arrangement, the current form of which is appended to the arrangement agreement. The arrangement is currently expected to be implemented pursuant to the public company "butterfly reorganization" rules under applicable Canadian tax law.

Completion of the arrangement is subject to the terms and conditions set out in the arrangement agreement and in the Master Separation Agreement previously entered into by the Company and Bausch + Lomb as of March 30, 2022. These terms and conditions include, without limitation, the receipt of applicable regulatory or other approvals, an opinion of U.S. tax counsel (and, if the Company so elects, a tax ruling requested from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to certain aspects of the arrangement) regarding U.S. tax treatment and the tax ruling requested from the Canada Revenue Agency confirming the tax-free treatment of the transaction to Bausch Health and Bausch + Lomb and their respective shareholders, and receipt by the Company's Board of Directors of one or more opinions from an independent appraisal firm confirming the solvency and financial viability of the Company prior to the arrangement and of the Company and Bausch + Lomb and its successor after consummation of the arrangement. Completion of the arrangement is also subject to receipt of applicable shareholder approvals and receipt of and compliance with the interim and final orders from the British Columbia Supreme Court. There can be no certainty, nor can Bausch Health provide any assurance, that all conditions precedent to the arrangement, whether under the arrangement agreement or otherwise, will be satisfied or waived, or, if satisfied or waived, when they will be satisfied or waived. The arrangement agreement and the plan of arrangement are also subject to amendment or termination in accordance with their respective terms. A copy of the arrangement agreement will be filed under Bausch Health's profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com. It is expected that the shareholders of Bausch Health will have an opportunity to consider this transaction at a special meeting of shareholders to be called and held in due course following completion of the Bausch + Lomb IPO.
